

ACC commitment to Workplace Health & Safety

As a result of a serious workplace incident in April 2011, Australian Country Choice has voluntarily entered into an enforceable undertaking with, The Department of Justice and Attorney – General and in conjunction with the office of Workplace Health and Safety Queensland.

The undertaking has application for the next 3 years commencing in 2013 and has a number of expected time frame commitments that Australian Country Choice must comply with during those 3 years. This includes:

- A commitment to improved safety performance & culture
- Adoption of a nationally recognised safety management system
- Additional training for employees
- Provide additional Community benefits

The company is committed to a continuous improvement in safety and safety culture and this enforceable undertaking will further aid the company in achieving this goal and become a benchmark for the rural industry.

*David Foote
Chief Executive Officer
December 2013*